

Student Information Yako (Ref. AB16)

Yahya Tuanaya is the youngest of 4 siblings, his parents are farmers and sell vegetables in the market. During the 2019 earthquake the family fled to the mountain and their house was totally destroyed, and they have no funds to rebuild their house. They have been living in a refugee house in the mountain for approximately 2 years. They hope that BEATS can find a sponsor for Yahya because they are a poor family and have economic difficulties.
