

Martin Fair

Martin is currently the Secretary to the trustees.

He lives in Southbourne with his wife Julie and attends St. John's church in the village, where he has several roles. In particular, he heads up the Global Mission Team.

He is a retired civil servant scientist but cannot believe how busy retirement can be!

Martin has supported BEATS for many years and has been a Trustee since 2021.